OVERVIEW

VOCATION PROFILE OF THE ESMHL CANDIDATE

A PATH Intl. Equine Specialist in Mental Health and Learning (ESMHL) ensures the safety and well-being of the equine participating in equine-assisted mental health and learning sessions. The ESMHL serves as the equine expert during equine/human interactions. The ESMHL works in partnership with a mental health professional or an educator to deliver services, incorporating equines in their practice, within the scope of their profession. An ESMHL must be knowledgeable in horsemanship and understands how to collaborate with a mental health professional and/or educator to best meet the client's needs and keep the lesson safe. Equine Specialists also have a general knowledge of mental health and education processes.

Equine Specialists have a thorough understanding of the ways equine behavior affects human responses and evaluates the role of the equine during the mental health or education sessions they supervise. The Equine Specialist maintains responsibility for the equine, assesses the equine's response to any interactions, and advocates for the equine and prohibits or stops any activity that compromises the well-being of the equine. They ensure that equine interactions within the session are safe and ethical.

WORKSHOP

Equine Specialist in Mental Health and Learning workshops are three days long and are offered at a variety of different PATH Intl. Premier Accredited Centers. Most centers run the workshop followed by a Horsemanship Skills Test. All workshops are listed in PATH Intl. eNews and on the events calendar on the PATH Intl. website. Check the calendar frequently for updates. Anyone who wishes to become involved in mental health or learning programs can attend a PATH Intl. Equine Specialist in Mental Health and Learning workshop.

The objective of this equine specialist workshop is for participants to develop an understanding of the importance of a trusting relationship and open communication between professionals.

The workshop:

- Provides specialized training for experienced equestrians, instructors or mental health professionals and educators who are interested in equine-assisted mental health and education programs. The workshop will not count towards a certification for anyone except an equine specialist.
- Is taught by a mental health professional and an equine specialist, using a combination of lectures, demonstrations, role-plays and hands-on exercises with equines.
- Focuses on the specific role of the equine specialist (equine handler) when assisting or collaborating with the licensed mental health provider or educator in designing safe, mutually respectful and effective activities to enhance participant outcomes, determining specific equine handling methods, and has an understanding of students with mental health and/or learning issues.
- Teaches participants how to create and maintain a therapeutic and educational environment, including a review of current PATH Intl. standards as they relate to psychotherapy incorporating equines.
- Includes demonstrations and exercises to increase awareness of equine behavior and how the behavior might enhance or endanger those in a therapy session.
- Emphasizes always keeping the equines and all participants in the session safe.
- Gives particular attention to assessing the equine's response to student behaviors and needs.
- Facilitates the collaboration between the mental health professional/educator and the equine specialist.
- Gives participants the opportunity to look at treatment plans with a mental health professional or educator and develop lesson plans based on client goals.

The workshop learning goals are for attendees to be able to:

- Create a therapeutic environment
- Understand equine care and management and ethical treatment of the equine in these sessions
- Understand how to maintain the association's code of ethics and standards, including the ethical treatment of the equine
- Design appropriate exercises based on the IEP (individual education plan) or mental health treatment plan
- Collaborate with other members of the team (mental health or education professional and the equine) to meet treatment goals or the individual education plan goals.

Topics Covered at the Workshop

DAY 1

- ESMHL Team Role plays
- Mental health team HIPAA and confidentiality
- Relationship exercise
- Equine behavior and management

DAY 2

PATH Intl. Equine Specialist in Mental Health and Learning (ESMHL) REGISTERING FOR WORKSHOP & HORSMANSHIP SKILLS TEST

Once a candidate has completed all workshop prerequisite requirements they will receive an email from PATH Intl. with a unique registration link that will allow them to pay for and register for an upcoming in-person ESMHL Workshop and Horsemanship Skills Test.

To see an upcoming list of events visit the PATH Intl. events calendar to locate a PATH Intl. Equine Specialist in Mental Health and Learning Workshop. The calendar is located under the "Attend and Learn" tab at the top of the pathintl.org website.

Recourse for non-passing score on the PATH Intl. Equine Specialist Horsemanship Skills Test:

- A candidate must purchase a retake fee for $650 through PATH Intl. Candidate may immediately retake the Horsemanship Skills Test if the center can accommodate the retest, fees will be due after event to PATH Intl.
 - Complete the remaining requirements within two years of the completion of your Equine Specialist in Mental Health and Learning Workshop.

Proof of successful completion of both the workshop and skills test are required for a PATH Intl. Equine Specialist in Mental Health and Learning certification. Completion of the workshop and skills test does NOT result in certification being awarded. Additional steps are required to fulfill the certification program requirements.

ACCOMODATIONS

An accommodation is an adjustment or an adaptation of a component or components of the ESMHL certification process to meet the special needs of a candidate.

- ▶ Reasonable accommodations may be granted to qualified individuals with known disabilities, unless doing so would result in a fundamental change to the certification criteria, create an undue hardship or cause a direct threat to health or safety.

Requests for an accommodation to any part of the process must be made in writing by the candidate and submitted to PATH Intl. All requests for accommodation must be accompanied by a letter from a physician (with letterhead and physician's handwritten signature) verifying the diagnosis and defining the candidate's limitations to help PATH Intl. determine appropriate, reasonable accommodations on an individual basis. Please visit our website at PATH Intl. Certification Accommodations to obtain the Reasonable Accommodation Policies and Procedures instructional booklet containing the necessary forms.

Accommodation requests will be reviewed by PATH Intl. on an individual basis to determine appropriate, reasonable accommodations. Please allow up to 60 days to receive accommodation request results in all cases.

* For more information please contact PATH Intl.

* PATH Intl. is not responsible for refunding candidate registration fees or travel expenses in the event that an accommodation request is submitted with insufficient processing time.

PORTFOLIO SUBMISSION INSTRUCTIONS

Please do not submit your portfolio to PATH Intl. until you have attended the PATH Intl. Equine Specialist in Mental Health and Learning workshop, successfully completed the PATH Intl. Equine Specialist Horsemanship Skills Test and gathered all items listed below.

Incomplete portfolios and/or illegible forms will not be accepted. Subsequent submissions may be subject to additional portfolio fees being assessed.

PORTFOLIO REQUIREMENTS

- 1 A copy of current PATH Intl. Professional Level (or above) membership card. Your membership must be up-to-date and active on the date you submit your portfolio.
- 2 A copy of current adult and child CPR and standard first-aid certifications. These certifications should have been earned via a reputable organization. Online certification courses are acceptable.
- 3 Signed copy of the PATH Intl. Certified Professional Code of Ethics. All certification candidates must agree to abide by the PATH Intl. Certified Professional Code of Ethics to earn and maintain PATH Intl. certification. See pages 15-17.
- 4 Proof of completion of a PATH Intl. Equine Specialist in Mental Health and Learning Workshop. A copy of your workshop certificate of completion should be provided. Note: that each certificate of completion is valid for two years. If you possess a certificate that will be more than two years old on the date you submit your portfolio, you must request an extension prior to the expiration date, or the workshop will need to be repeated so that a valid certificate can be provided.
- 5 Proof of a passing evaluation for the PATH Intl. ESMHL Horsemanship Skills Test. A copy of your horsemanship skills test evaluation and certificate should be provided. Note that skills test evaluations are valid for two years. If you possess an evaluation that will be more than two years old on the date you submit your portfolio, you will need to request an extension prior to the expiration date or repeat the skills test to provide a valid evaluation.

- 6 Two completed reference forms from professionals in the field who have directly observed and supervised you in a professional setting (see enclosed forms), one from each:
- a. An educator¹ OR a licensed mental health professional (psychologist, psychiatrist, LCSW, LPC, LCPC, LPCC, LMHC, etc.) Ensure this reference fills out the reference form and answers the questions.
 - b. An equine professional²
 1. For the purposes of this requirement, an educator is defined as a professional competent in teaching and instruction who possesses at least one of the following:
 - A teaching license
 - A degree (bachelor or higher) in education
 - A paid position as an educator at a higher education institution
 2. For the purposes of this requirement, an equine professional is defined as an individual with a history of safe equestrian practices who is competent in horsemanship and possesses at least one of the following:
 - A certification or degree in equine care, management, etc.
 - A minimum of 600 hours of successful employment as an equine/barn manager, equine/barn assistant, etc.
- 7 Total of 80 clock hours of relevant education/training and experience comprised of:
- a. 20 clock hours hands-on education on equine behavior and/or management with a maximum of 10 hours at any single event or training. All hours reported must consist of active learning of equine behavior and management concepts from a reputable source, courses in which you are the teacher or assistant teacher will not suffice for this requirement. The expectation for this requirement is that each activity is designed to accomplish specific learning objectives related to equine behavior and/or senses, equine management and/or best practices in handling and care of equines. Hours must be active learning of equine behavior and management concepts from a reputable source.
 - Video or webinar-based education may be counted only if supplemented by a comprehension assessment or a hands-on component/activity.

PATH Intl. Certified Professional Code of Ethics

- Approved by PATH Intl. Board of Trustees October 21, 2010. Edited name change to PATH Intl. July 2011
- Revisions by the PATH Intl. Credentialing Council November 11, 2017, Implemented July 1, 2019

Preamble

The PATH Intl. Certified Professional Code of Ethics sets forth ethical principles for all PATH Intl. certified persons.

The practice and preservation of the highest standards of ethical principles and integrity are vital for the responsible implementation of obligations, activities and services provided by PATH Intl. certified persons. All certified persons are responsible for maintaining and promoting these ethical practices. The code of ethics is intended to be used as a guide for promoting and maintaining the highest standards of ethical practice, personal behavior and professional integrity of certified persons.

The guidelines expressed in the code are not to be considered all-inclusive of situations that could evolve under a specific principle, nor is the failure to specify any particular responsibility or practice a denial of the existence of such responsibilities or practices. The guidelines are specific statements of minimally acceptable conduct or of prohibitions applicable to all certified persons.

In recognition of the responsibility inherent in the delivery of services provided by equine-assisted activities and therapies, PATH Intl. asks all certified persons to subscribe to the following to the extent permitted by law:

Principle 1

The certified person respects the rights, dignity and well-being of all individuals (human and equine) and promotes well-being for all involved.

Guidelines:

- 1.1 The certified person shall be responsive to, and mutually supportive of, the individuals served, including families, colleagues and associates.
- 1.2 The certified person shall respect the unique nature of each individual and shall be tolerant of, and responsive to, differences. The certified person shall not discriminate based on age, gender, race, nationality, religion, ethnicity, social or economic status, sexual orientation, health condition or disability.
- 1.3 The certified person shall follow equal employment opportunity practices in hiring, assigning, promoting, discharging and compensating staff.
- 1.4 The certified person shall maintain in professional confidence participant, volunteer and staff information, observations or evaluations and shall adhere to all legal requirements.
- 1.5 The certified person, in community settings, shall use caution in forming dual or multiple relationships with participants or former participants where there is a risk of a conflict of interest. The certified person, in clinical treatment settings, shall avoid dual relationships when possible. In situations where dual relationships are unavoidable, the certified person shall be responsible for setting clear, appropriate and sensitive boundaries.
- 1.6 The certified person will understand the sensitive nature of physical touch and use it with caution.

Principle 2

The certified person accepts responsibility for the exercise of sound judgment and professional competence.

Guidelines:

- 2.1 The certified person shall accurately represent his/her level of expertise, experience, education and actual practice and provide service only to those individuals he/she can competently serve. The certified person shall engage in sound business, employment and administrative practices.
- 2.2 The certified person shall maintain certification by complying with all recertification requirements.
- 2.3 The certified person shall recognize and take appropriate action to remedy personal problems and limitations that might cause harm to recipients of service, colleagues or others.

- 2.4 The certified person shall demonstrate objectivity and fairness by interacting with individuals in an impartial manner.
- 2.5 The certified person shall accept responsibility for the exercise of sound judgment when interacting with individuals and animals.
- 2.6 The certified person shall demonstrate openness to, and respect for, other colleagues and professionals.

Principle 3

The certified person shall respect the integrity and well-being of program equines and animals whether owned, leased or borrowed.

Guidelines:

- 3.1 The certified person shall recognize and respect the individual character, nature and physical attributes of each program equine.
- 3.2 The certified person shall encourage safe and respectful human and equine interactions, placing equines in activities suited to their temperament and physical ability.
- 3.3 The certified person shall support the highest standard of care, maintenance and selection for each program equine, understanding and responding to the equine's need for socialization, play, turnout, time off and retirement.
- 3.4 When equines are borrowed or leased, the same high standards of equine respect, care and maintenance shall apply.
- 3.5 The certified person shall cultivate a barn and practice environment that supports personal and professional development and provides a safe environment for persons and equines.

Principle 4

The certified person shall be truthful and fair in representing him- or herself and others.

Guidelines:

- 4.1 The certified person shall be responsible for providing each participant with accurate information regarding programs, services, professional training and credentials, as well as possible benefits, outcomes, expected activities, risks and limitations of the service or program.
- 4.2 The certified person shall use the certification logo and certification marks only in an authorized and approved manner.

Principle 5

The certified person shall seek to expand his/her knowledge base related to the field of equine-assisted activities and therapies.

Guidelines:
