PATH Intl. Announces Education-Filled Lineup for Horse Expo

Denver – Can't get enough of horses? Then The Professional Association of Therapeutic Horsemanship International (PATH Intl.) Horse Expo is the place to be! PATH Intl. is pleased to announce its horse expo lineup for the 2015 PATH Intl. Conference and Annual Meeting. The horse expo closes out the conference week on November 7, 2015, at Fieldstone Farm Therapeutic Riding Center in Chagrin Falls, OH.

Jackie Stevenson, the keynote speaker on Thursday, will present a special workshop, demonstrating the methods discussed in Thursday's keynote address, "Someday We'll Live Like Horses." Horses challenge us to be our best, and attendees of Saturday's workshop will take away five key competencies learned from our equine partners, including inclusivity and mutuality and developing an authentic inner presence. Jackie is the founder and CEO of Spirit of Leadership LLC, providing coaching, leadership and team building training and seminars to corporations and nonprofit organizations.

Other educational sessions will include saddle fitting, grooming for the healthy horse, common musculoskeletal ailments of the aging horse, bits and biting, engaging the horse's mind, lungeing, and equine-assisted psychotherapy and the veteran. Attendees will also be treated to a carriage driving demonstration during lunch.

Special trips to retailers Schneiders and Arborwear will run throughout the day, and both retailers are offering discounts to PATH Intl. Horse Expo attendees.

Early registration is currently offered online on the conference page at www.pathintl.org, as well as more information about conference sessions (click on the registration book), the Renaissance Cleveland Hotel and fun things to do in Cleveland, the Rock and Roll Capital of the World. The early registration discount ends September 17, so register now and discover for yourself why everyone is talking about the power of the horse to change lives.
