Certified Therapeutic Riding Instructor (CTRI®) Certification
Reasonable Accommodation Request Requirements

- Requests for an accommodation to any part of the process must be made in writing by the applicant using the Request for Certification Testing and/or Examination Accommodations form and submitted to the PATH Intl. office. Accommodation requests will be reviewed by PATH Intl. on an individual basis to determine appropriate, reasonable accommodations. If a request for an accommodation is approved, PATH Intl. will notify the applicant, certification site and faculty and assist in making necessary arrangements.

- The applicant’s written request should state their reasons for requesting an accommodation and the specific certification testing component for which they are requesting an accommodation: riding instruction and communication of riding skills demonstration video, supervised teaching hours, computer-based certification exam, etc.

- Reasonable accommodations include but are not limited to:
  - An arena assistant for the purpose of performing emergency dismounts
  - Additional time, a reader/interpreter, a recorder or a private room during administration of the certification exam

  NOTE: Long distance, virtual or video supervision of prerequisite experience hours are NOT considered accommodations, they are considered allowances. Information related to acceptable allowances can be found at https://pathintl.org/images/pdf/resources/certifications/path-intl-allowances-booklet.pdf.

- All requests for disability-related accommodations must be accompanied by a Documentation of Disability-Related Needs form completed by the applicant’s healthcare provider supplying recommended accommodations to help PATH Intl. determine appropriate, reasonable accommodations on an individual basis.

- Accommodation requests should be submitted with the initial instructor application. An accommodation request may be submitted after the instructor application has been received by PATH Intl., but at least 90 days prior to your requested testing date is recommended to allow for a minimum of 60 days processing time and 30 days to make arrangements for any approved accommodations.

- Please allow up to 60 days to receive accommodation request results in all cases.

For more information, contact PATH Intl.
