About PATH Intl.

The Professional Association of Therapeutic Horsemanship International (PATH Intl.) leads the advancement of professional equine-assisted services by supporting members and stakeholders through rigorously developed standards, credentialing and education. There are over 300 PATH Intl. Member Centers across the nation serving military Veterans.

Serving Veterans

PATH Intl. Centers can provide many different varieties of equine-assisted services (EAS) for the recreational and therapeutic benefit of Veteran service members (VSM). Services may be offered independently or in a group setting offering Veteran camaraderie.
